Kevin Singer is founder and president of Receivership Specialists. He and his business partner John Rachlin, for the last 23 years, have specialized in state and federal court receiverships, referee assignments, partition sales, provisional director assignments, professional trustee assignments, and bankruptcy trustee assignments. Receivership Specialists has offices in Los Angeles, Orange County, San Francisco, Sacramento, San Diego, Ventura, Phoenix, Reno, and Las Vegas and handles assignments throughout the southwest. The alliance of these two professionals brings together their vast knowledge and experience in the areas of law, real estate, business management, construction, and conflict resolution.

Mr. Singer was first appointed as a rents & profits receiver due to his extensive real estate, property management, and construction experience, as founder and co-owner of a diversified real estate and consulting company. He is a real estate broker, licensed building contractor, and professional fiduciary. After selling that company in 2000, Mr. Singer once again joined forces with his longtime counsel, friend and business partner, Mr. Rachlin, to specialize in receivership assignments. Mr. Rachlin is co-founder and a principal with Receivership Specialists and has been a licensed attorney for 30 years. Although Mr. Rachlin now serves as a full-time receiver and referee, he previously practiced in various areas of real estate and general business law, as well as served as in-house counsel for a large real estate company. Over the past seventeen years, Mr. Singer and Mr. Rachlin have handled over 534 cases for large and small banks, private lenders, private investors and municipalities. They have also managed and transitioned over two billion dollars in assets. Mr. Singer has served as a receiver, referee, trustee, special
